

DR. DAVID FARRAR

+1 612 423 2723 | david@koliso.com

OVERVIEW

Dr. David Farrar's expertise is the psychology of business. David is an Australian living in the US since 2001 and a trained psychologist with international experience as an executive, consultant and speaker.

David works with senior executives, management teams and leaders addressing the people issues that make the most difference to their success. The paybacks for his clients regularly have broad strategic impact and exceed millions of dollars.

David works with his clients to improve what matters most in their business, such as customer satisfaction, employee wellbeing, productivity and profitability.

EXPERIENCE

He has worked with local and international organizations including

- Berlitz
- Cargill
- Coles Myer
- Ericsson
- Hennepin County Bar Association
- Jacstadt
- Minnesota Judicial Branch
- Minimizer SPC
- Moore Corporation
- Travelers
- Twin Cities Orthopedics
- United Way

Before Koliso, David was VP HR in SE Asia and responsible for global organization effectiveness outcomes for a more than 100,000-employee organization. His professional experience includes senior management roles in sales, marketing, corporate development and human resources.

David has a rich depth of professional experience internationally, including in Australia, Belgium, Germany, Malaysia, South Africa, Singapore, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States.

EDUCATION

David studied at the Royal Military College of Australia (MUR), University of Melbourne and Northwestern University (Kellogg Business School). He has degrees in economics and psychology, completed his graduate work with honors, and was accredited as a psychologist in the Commonwealth of Australia.

RECENT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Guiding more than 200 senior executives in leadership and influence skills.
- Delivering keynote presentations at conferences and private corporate events.
- Performance management and employee engagement projects for global organizations.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Participation has included

- Australian Psychological Society
- International Association of Applied Psychology
- Australian Human Resources Institute
- Human Resources Professionals of Minnesota
- Society for Human Resources Management
- American Society for Training and Development

David has also held numerous board positions throughout his career.

